The Risk Quotient

An annual dialogue bringing together academics, practitioners and the public to improve the understanding of risk and ground better decision-making

The 2ND LRFI CONFERENCE

Jointly organised by:
University of Tokyo
Tokyo, Japan
ABOUT

Stress and fear influence our ability to make sound decisions amidst rapid changes and new risks. Trust determines who we turn to for information and guidance at those times. The Risk Quotient 2018 will be a forum addressing the latest academic research and practice on these issues. The forum is open to academics, practitioners and the public.

PROGRAMME

Key-note sessions, workshops, panel discussions, networking opportunities, open speaker sessions and more.

DAY ONE THEME

Fast and Furious: Decision-making in Rapidly Changing Environments

DAY TWO THEME

Off the Charts: Managing Unprecedented Events
